PHILOSOPHY IN SCHOOLS ONE DAY CONFERENCE

FRIDAY 12TH JULY 2019

AT 8:30AM

The University of Notre Dame Australia, Sydney

The Moorgate Boardroom & Common Room, 104 Broadway, Chippendale, NSW, 2008 Australia

Join the Federation of Australasian Philosophy in Schools Associations (FAPSA) in a wonderful one-day conference that celebrates teaching and research in philosophy and ethics in the primary and high school classroom! With practical hands-on workshops as well as a couple of presentations, this event is well suited to new or experienced teachers who enjoy critical thinking, ethical deliberation and wish to encourage such thinking skills in their students.

Topics

Philosophy in Schools around the world: the latest initiatives and research worldwide; Engaging thinking in the Primary Classroom; Philosophy in Public Spaces; Using Philosophy to create 21st century thinkers in schools; How to more accurately and transparently assess Philosophical Inquiry; Moral Education in a technological world.

The full day may be counted as 6 hours (7.5 hours including the evening panel) of 'teacher identified professional development' addressing standards 3.3.2 & 6.2.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.

Cost: $120

Early bird tickets $100 prior to May 31 2019

The workshop will be fully catered
